

Sansevieria arborescens Gerome & Labroy

Family: Asparagaceae (Dracaenaceae)

GIR: Chongwa

Frutescent, grows in thick stands, rhizomes subterranean; stem upright, terete, 1–1.5 m high. Inflorescence 0.5 m long with small white flowers and orange berries.

The leaves are used for poison.

Grows on the cliff face

