

Fernandoa magnifica

Family Bignoniaceae

GIR: Munyala

Small, often multi-stemmed tree. Flowers orange-red with a yellow centre; corolla bell-shaped, up to 10 cm in diameter. Fruit a long, slender capsule, 30-55 cm long, flattened, spirally twisted.

The leaves and roots are used to treat and protect against snakebites.

Available Kivukoni Indigenous Tree Nursery

copyright Norbert Rottcher, Kivukoni Indigenous Tree Nursery

Larval foodplant to

Epiphora mythimnia - White-ringed atlas

copyright Ton Rulkens

Epiphora mythimnia - White-ringed Atlas (c) Stanislav Krejčík