

Ficus bussei
Family Moraceae
GIR: Mugandi

A fine fig growing to 25 m along the coastal strip. Trunk fluted at base, bark grey. Often has aerial roots. Fruit green with whitish warts, attracting birds, bats and monkeys. Reasonably fast-growing.

Larval food to:

Cyrestis camillus, -the African map butterfly
Myrina silenus - common fig blue

Available -Kivukoni Indigenous Tree Nursery

Myrina silenus - common fig blue
(c) BV

Cyrestis camillus, -the African map butterfly
(c) Bart Wursten